

Chapter 1: Grounds of Complaint

Any customer may file a complaint with the Ombudsman on any of the following grounds alleging deficiency in service:

- Delay or non-reversal of failed transactions.
- Unauthorized electronic fund transfers.
- Non-adherence to the Fair Practices Code.
- Levying of charges without adequate prior notice.

Chapter 2: Procedure

Pre-condition: The customer must first file a complaint with the Regulated Entity. If the entity rejects the complaint, or provides no reply within 30 days, the customer can approach the Ombudsman.
