

Master Direction - Credit Card and Debit Card

Chapter III: Issue of Credit Cards

3.1. Card-issuers shall ensure that there is no delay in dispatching bills and the customer has sufficient number of days (at least one fortnight) for making payment before the interest starts getting charged.

3.2. Card-issuers shall ensure that wrong bills are not raised and issued to customers. In case, a customer protests any bill, the card-issuer shall provide explanation within a maximum period of 30 days.

3.3. No charges shall be levied on any transaction disputed as 'fraudulent' by the customer until the dispute is resolved.

Chapter IV: Interest rates and other charges

4.1. Card-issuers shall quote Annualized Percentage Rates (APR).

4.2. The card-issuer shall not levy any charge that was not explicitly indicated to the credit cardholder.